Whisky and Wildlife tour on Islay and Jura

Welcome to Simply Nice Tours (SNT)! We specialize in trips that allow you to experience the unique character, history, and present day life of the places you visit.

Whisky and Wildlife tour on Islay and Jura, Islay is famous for its single malt whisky distilleries. The whitewashed walls of many famous distilleries greet you as you arrive on the ferry.

Between our malted fun there is plenty more to see, the wildlife is spectacular and depending on the time of year we may encounter many rare and splendid birds such as the Golden Eagle, the White tailed sea Eagle, harriers and in autumn and winter flocks of migrating geese. The largest UK colony of chough live on the island and otters can often be seen along with seals and plenty of red deer

Red deer will make the presence felt when we spend the day on the Isle of Jura. This romantic island has just one road and a distillery and hotel. It is rugged and mountainous and hosted George Orwell who wrote his novel 1984 there in a remote cottage at the end of the road.

There is archaeology to be explored on both islands and we can hunt for stone circles and castles between our sampling of the produce

Start and end of tour can be arranged for Manchester or Glasgow airports, or Glasgow rail station.
